

Kathy Keeney
LRIW Scholarship Chair
Vice President, ASLRRA

Kathy Keeney is Vice President of Membership and Exhibits at the American Short Line and Regional Railroad Association in Washington, D.C. The granddaughter of a railroader, Kathy is an award-winning journalist and editor who has enjoyed her involvement in the railroad industry for more than 25 years. Her diverse executive background includes experience in editorial development as well as trade show management, sales, marketing and finance.

Prior to joining ASLRRA in mid-2015, she served as publisher of three prominent railroad directories. She has had a close working relationship with ASLRRA for more than two decades as her group also sold and managed the ASLRRA's annual CONNECTIONS convention. Her previous experience also includes serving as editor of a monthly national railroad magazine and as editor of a short line publication.

She is a long-time member of the League of Railway Industry Women and served as publicity chair, vice president and president. She was honored with the LRIW's Outstanding Member of the Year award for 2012. She has served on the board of directors for the ASLRRA and for WTS' D.C. chapter. She is a graduate of Loyola University of Maryland.
